Bio and Statement of Qualifications

Vivian Bekele

Vivian Bekele has held several positions in the corporate world including:

President of Beyah Enterprises, Inc./Bevism Enterprises, LLC: Real Estate Industry; President of Bevism Enterprises, Inc.; Laundromat-Dry Cleaning/Vending Industries as well as Office Management Consultation; President of Aalem Travel, Ltd.: Travel industry; and Vice President of Rapid Taxi Co., Inc. /Rapid Group, Inc.: Taxi/Insurance Industries

Other corporations of employment for Vivian include: AT&T, Sears, IBM, State of Georgia: Department of Human Resources/Title XX Administration, Central Fulton Senior Services, the Six District Federal Reserve Bank in Atlanta, and Delta Air Lines, Inc.

Vivian has earned several degrees which are as follows:

B. S. – Christian Education: Bay Ridge Christian College;
B. S. – School of Urban Life/Community Relations: GA State University;
M. S. – School of Urban Life/Human Resources: GA State University;
Management Workshops from the University of Alabama

Continual Education:

Enlightened Wealth Institute (EWI) proffered by Robert Allen;
Dean Graziosi's Real Estate Inner Circle in the Real Estate Investors' Industry

She continued her education without earning the corresponding degrees from the following schools:

John Marshall Law School: 1998 – 2001

GA State University: dual degree program: Master Degree Program in the Andrew Young School of Public Policy/JD at the College of Law: 2008 – 2010

Besides her educational pursuits, Vivian is currently a licensed minister within the Reformation Movement of the Church of God headquartered in Anderson, Indiana since 2005. She is also the published author of "The Seed of Abba…The Seed of the Woman," published by AuthorHouse in August 2008.

Vivian received the National Association of Professional Woman Award for the Woman of the Year 2010/2011. She is also an active member of the Atlanta Real Estate Investors Alliance (AREIA).